

PAINTER NEWS.—Wm. S. Southmayd, who left Keeseville on the 19th March for California, was drowned on the 18th of April, while on his way thither. The Bark Santa, in which he sailed, was struck by a tornado, and capsized, and he with one other passenger was lost. Mr. Southmayd was formerly Editor of the Whitehall Democrat, and was much esteemed by those who knew him.—Clinton County Whig.

Mr. Southmayd was a Nephew of J. J. Starr Esq., of Burlington. He was formerly connected with a paper at Keeseville (N. Y.) and was very well known there.

To an Absent Wife.

We are parted—sad and slowly
Wing the weary hours away,
Unheeded by sweet converse,
Of the gush of household song;
Evening casts her musing shadows
Over all, and the lone light
Sheds on my heart a shadow
Rests—for thou art not with me!

This dreary silence gathering round me
Echoes not thy treasured tone—
Gleams not, through the shrouding darkness
Flashes of the eye which shone
With Love's own unquenchable splendor
By our human heart at ease,
Ere our lives had known sorrow,
Or our hearts had learned to grieve!

Still, though separated, ever
Wing my fondest thoughts to thee;
And my spirit is communing
With thy spirit, buoyant free,
And I know the joy which won me
In my boyhood's happier day,
Sheds, as gently now as ever,
Over me the holy ray.

Oh this knowledge cometh patience,
With heretofore strength, to still
The wild yearning of my heart,
Its lone, aching void to fill!
May the charm be strong, till brighten
Brighter, happier days shall come,
When thy smile again shall brighten
My sad heart, and lonely home!

Asthma or Phthisis cured by using the Oxygenated Bitters.
CORNISH, N. H. August 15, 1851.
I hereby certify, that my daughter Ruth was so much afflicted with Asthma or Phthisis from Infancy, as to be unable to attend to her school, and also the pleasure of joining in the family, which may be had of the Agents gratis. I was advised to try the effect of the "Oxygenated Bitters," prepared by Dr. Green of Windsor, Vt., which advice I followed. She used about half a pint of the Bitters, which restored her to her former health, and she has remained so to the present time. It is about two years since my daughter used the above medicine.

Hon. Myron Lawrence of Rochester, Mass., was cured after being troubled with severe Asthma for more than twenty years, is his certificate in the pamphlet, which may be had of the Agents gratis. REED, BATES & AUSTIN, Wholesale Druggists, 26 Merchants' Row, Boston, General Agents.
